

Interplex Customer Advisory on Novel Coronavirus (2019-nCoV)

7 February 2020

Interplex's manufacturing facilities located in China have been closed since the week of 27 January 2020 for the Chinese New Year festivities. The extended closure of our manufacturing facilities is in compliance with quarantine order(s) issued by governmental authorities in China to contain the outbreak of the Novel Coronavirus (2019-nCoV).

Notwithstanding the quarantine order(s), we have been in close contact with our affected manufacturing facilities and local governmental authorities to understand the impact and mitigate the effects of the quarantine order(s). The health and safety of our employees are paramount and we have taken preventive and proactive measures to safeguard their well-being. In addition, to minimize the risk of infections, we have also restricted our staff from all non-essential travels.

We will continue to closely monitor the developments and the impact of the Novel Coronavirus (2019-nCoV) on our operations. We are committed to ensure the safety of our employees while working towards mitigating any possible disruptions to our customers' operations.

If you have any queries or concerns, please contact your Interplex representative.

Thank you for your understanding.
